FOOTBALL

The 1934 football season was one of the most successful in the history of F. H. S. Coach Carl Matthusen and his assistants, Arthur Sundt and John Cole, developed a very powerful team, which won the Southern Six Championship, the first championship team Fort has had since it has been in the Southern Six League. On our home gridiron all our games were won, Monroe being the only team to score on us here. Out of town we tied two and won one game. The Edgerton game was tied 0-0 and the Milton Union tilt ended 6-6. The Cardinals rolled up a total of 208 points to the opponents 12. Much credit goes to the line for stopping the attacks so well, making it possible for the opponents to have little chance to score. Our back field was more than successful in taking the pigskin over the goal line.

THE TCHOGEERRAH 1935

The only casualty of the season happened at the Milton game when "Woody" Bienfang broke his leg. This injury kept him out of a suit for the rest of the season.

For several weeks after the season the Cardinals dined and danced royally at balls and banquets in their honor. The fact that Fort Atkinson does not have a championship team every year made people eager to honor this one.

The first reward to the boys was a banquet at the Black Hawk Hotel. Wilson Beebe and Woodrow Bienfang were elected co-captains for next year. Next the Boys of '31 gave a championship ball at which letters were presented. The American Legion then gave a public banquet. To show his appreciation of their fine cooperation, Mr. Matthusen gave gold footballs to each team member.

The league presented a trophy in the form of a football, and Mr. F. W. Hadinger, formerly a citizen of Monroe, presented a cup to the winner of the Monroe game.

CALENDAR

September

SEPTEMBER 3

Labor Day. Rain. Teachers' meeting, and, last but not least—thoughts of school!

SEPTEMBER 4

.... First day of school! Hello, neighbor!

SEPTEMBER 9

Jefferson County Fair. Orchids to the Ag. and Art students for the 21 first and 25 second prizes.

SEPTEMBER 14

The Cheerleaders are going to work—what cooperation! Fort meets Horicon to the tune of 28-0. Not bad for a beginning.

SEPTEMBER 17

Constitution Day. And after all these years, we're still not satisfied with it.

SEPTEMBER 19

Talk on (I mean about) the Unknown Soldier.

SEPTEMBER 21

Mud—Mud—Mud—Fort went to Milton and came back with a 6-6 tie, plenty of mud and one casualty, "Woody" Bienfang broke his left leg. Tough luck, "Woody", we'll miss you in the line up. Senior Class has a mixer. What fun! Large attendance!

SEPTEMBER 28

Rockton at Fort Atkinson. We took them 27-0.

October

OCTOBER 5

Fort at Watertown. Like a Baer-Carnera fight, they're "Bare" and we're "Baer". Our favor 20-0.

OCTOBER 10

Mr. Bray talked at Edgerton. We're sure they liked it.

OCTOBER 12

Fort versus Wisconsin High at home. Our game 20-0.

OCTOBER 15

General teachers' meeting at Watertown. Talk by Dr. Pond. Why don't they have more of them?

OCTOBER 19

What a game! What a crowd! What a team! Stoughton at Fort with a victory for us, 26-0.

OCTOBER 26

Junior Class Party. Where's everybody! Seniors and Underclassmen: "Why have ye forsaken us?"

THE TCHOGEERRAH 1935

OCTOBER 27

Fort at Edgerton. Tie 0-0. The boys might just as well have had their mittens on. Brrrrrrrrrrh! It was chilly.

OCTOBER 31

De Molay held a Hallowe'en Dance after the Jefferson game to keep the students out of mischief (?). Did they succeed, Mary Jane? Fort won the game 41-0.

November

NOVEMBER 1, 2, 3

Vacation—One lucky break for us.

NOVEMBER 5

Beginning of National Education Week—Speeches, Speeches, Speeches and SNORES. Mr. Jeffords spoke on "Planning for Tomorrow."

NOVEMBER 7

"Continuing Education Through Life", Mr. Logan.

NOVEMBER 8

"Financing Our Schools," Edwin Hedberg.

NOVEMBER 9

Big day—Mr. Pierce spoke on "Sense of Civic Responsibility." We also beat Monroe at Fort Atkinson by the score of 40-6.

NOVEMBER 16

Agriculture contest—Prizes won. What? No prizes! Are you letting the old hometown down, boys?

NOVEMBER 23

Football Championship Ball—our guests were the captains of our opposing teams during the football season. The football boys and cheer leaders were awarded their letters.

NOVEMBER 27

Football banquet—second big feed for the boys. Why not rebel, girls?

NOVEMBER 28

Mr. Grabill gave us a talk which everyone enjoyed. A fine speech! Thanks, Mr. Grabill.

NOVEMBER 29-30

Another lucky break for us. Thanksgiving recess.

December

DECEMBER 1

Some are looking pale around the gills—didn't eat too much turkey, did you? First basket-ball game of the season. It didn't measure up to the football record. Whitewater at Whitewater—trimmed us to the score of 28-18.

DECEMBER 5

Group teachers' meeting. Editor Bolles of the Janesville Gazette spoke to the pedagogues.

THE TCHOGEERRAH 1935

DECEMBER 6

Second game with Whitewater at Whitewater and we again got our ears pinned back 36-21.

DECEMBER 14

Very exciting game with Watertown here. We ended up on the right side of the fence with the score of 24-23. Fine work, boys.

DECEMBER 20

Better watch out. Santa Claus is just around the corner and if you're not good, the brownies will tell on you.

DECEMBER 21

The boys traveled over to Stoughton with high spirits, but came home a little disheartened because we were beaten by a score of 30-15. Also Christmas vacation until January 3. Get your skates sharpened, boys and girls. Be sure to make out your list for Santa.

January

JANUARY 3

Au revoir, sweet freedom—we're back at school.

JANUARY 4

A hard fought game at Lake Mills. Very exciting, but we were beaten 16-15. Sophomore Class Party—splendid attendance—let's hope for more parties like it.

JANUARY 8

Senior Class sponsored a school luncheon for the Annual fund. Everyone ate like starved mice, and it's well that they did. Profit of $40.19 for the Annual.

JANUARY 11

Fort went to Edgerton and again we lost 25-17. Seems as though the boys are better football players than basketball players. But have courage.

JANUARY 15

Our Junior High School is training its youngsters to play basketball and they seem to be succeeding. First game for them and they won 19-10. Good work, boys.

JANUARY 18

Monroe came to Fort, and we tripped them up by a score of 33-11.

JANUARY 21

Again the Junior High came through with a victory. London was the victim with the score 16-15.

JANUARY 23, 24, 25

Three days of reckoning—"Exams". Some of us found out that it would have been better to study weeks before instead of the night before. Wisconsin High at Fort Atkinson. They went back with another feather in their hat—they won 19-12.

JANUARY 28

Our Red Letter Day—Report Cards. Just one more chance Seniors, new semester.

THE TCHOGEERRAH 1935

JANUARY 29

Our "old pal" (?) Jefferson came and we took them 22-14. It was a grand game and much to our credit.

JANUARY 30

First debate of the year and a victory for the Fort affirmative 2-1.

February

FEBRUARY 1

Lucky or unlucky? Unlucky! Fort negatives lose to Watertown affirmative 2-1. Fort cagers traveled to Watertown also and were defeated 20-14.

FEBRUARY 5

Now luck has changed and is with us. Fort negatives win over Edgerton affirmatives 2-1.

FEBRUARY 6

Luck still with us. Fort affirmatives win 2-1 over Verona negatives.

FEBRUARY 8

Stoughton traveled to Fort and stepped on our toes 32-16.

FEBRUARY 12

Lincoln's birthday and a fine talk on Lincoln by Rev. Morris. Yea, Team! Fight! Fight! Fight! And, fight they did—he's up; he's down! Fort at Jefferson with 25-18 in our favor.

FEBRUARY 15

And now we were taken down a notch or two. Edgerton beat us here 24-15.

FEBRUARY 22

Washington's Birthday. Too bad it doesn't come more than once a year. A program was presented in the forenoon and no school in the afternoon. Members of the Junior Music Study Club presented "Bon Voyage"—Well done. Oh, John, those looks you and Margaret exchanged! Cardinals defeated at Monroe 20-12.

FEBRUARY 23

Senior Class Bake Sale. Want to buy a duck? Receipts, $40.57.

FEBRUARY 25

Snow, snow, everywhere. About half the school was stuck in the drifts. Was the snow storm the only reason for your absence, Willis, or—?

FEBRUARY 27

Members of dramatic club gave a cut from Drinkwater's Abraham Lincoln for the American Legion Auxiliary.

March

MARCH 4

Senior Class play tryouts.

MARCH 8

Senior Class Party. What fun and what a crowd.

THE TCHOGEERRAH 1935

MARCH 12

Visiting day. Well, how did you like our fine (?) school, Messrs. Buell and Smith? Do we behave as well as your angels?

MARCH 14

"Sauce for the Goslings" presented by class members. Hi, granny—does Mae West still inspire you? Really, between the three of us I think you lie when you say she's your inspiration. Basketball tournament at Monroe and we lost to Platteville.

MARCH 15

What fine singers Jefferson has! We should know—they entertained us during opening exercises. And last but not least—we beat Monroe at the tournament 26-18.

MARCH 22

What a trip the 10:25 Physics class took today! Way from the Hall of Statues at Washington to the Mormon Tabernacle at Salt Lake City. Be careful, you bluffers, they'll find out what you didn't know before. Intelligence test.

MARCH 27

Smile, darn you. Pictures are being taken for the Annual.

April

APRIL 1

All fools' day—we'd better all watch out. Declamation tryouts. Fine work, Lil and Ellen Jean.

APRIL 2

Senior class meeting. Be sure not to take an I. C. S. Course. Shall we wear caps and gowns or what? Answer—what.

APRIL 4

Dress rehearsal for class play—and a calamity. Bacon, you do have the worst trouble.

APRIL 5

Class play, "Agatha's Aunt." Congratulations, it was fine. Oh, Melvin, how your poor heart did flutter when Alice came out.

APRIL 10

Entertained by an orchestra and an octet from Milton. Why were you so excited, Gladys? League Forensic Contest at Fort. We can be just proud of the talent in our school. Only three out-of-town members placed—the rest were ours. Congratulations to all who took part.

APRIL 13

Something new all the time. School on Saturday from 8-11—so we shan't have to go back after Decoration Day. Couldn't they give us one day?

APRIL 18-19

Spring vacation. Short but sweet. We hear that on the 19th a serious conflict resulted from a game of golf between Mr. Bray and Mr. Halmstead. We were unable to determine who won.

THE TCHOGEERRAH 1935

APRIL 23

And now—school at night. Fun? No, 'cause it was school.

APRIL 26

District Forensic Contest at Whitewater.

May

MAY 10

Junior Prom. It speaks for itself.

MAY 29

Last day of school. The theme song of the Seniors is "With the Parting of the Ways". Dedication of the stone and tree.

MAY 31

State High School Golf Tournament at Lake Ripley.

June

JUNE 2

Baccalaureate Services at the Municipal Building.

JUNE 3-4-5

Exams—aren't we glad we were good (?) Seniors?

JUNE 6

63d annual Commencement Exercises. Mr. Frederick Snyder of New York City delivers the Commencement address.

JUNE 7

Alumni Banquet and Dance.
School starts next year September 3.

Does Marian have a garden-i-er?

Ho, yes! A fellow named Sod works there several times a week.

After these Saturday night parties James looks kind of heavey,
I guess he can't take it!

What did Bill do when someone put a tack on his chair?
Bill rose.

What did his goat give Loren?
A-butt (Abbott)

Why does Carroll bark-er bite?
To protect himself when the girls come round.

Why does R. Heth like to wear red?
Because she's a ruby.

We wonder who Lav will be making pi-fer after June 6.

Can Robert keep a secret?
What does he always tel-fer?

Who does Arvilla's hart-tel her is the one and only?

Are the notes Ruth hol-d-s-worth the trouble she had getting them without being caught?

We wonder what Lillian and Lydia hunger for?
It doesn't seem to be love.

We can recommend a merry jane who is a good mason, but who'd make a better miller

Why is Chuck like Van Boring?
He never says a Ward.

Why don't you walk faster?
Because I have a Lucille and it May fall off.

Howar-dead parties livened up?
Weiss cracks.

Why don' yo all come fishin' wid us, Bob?
Kor dat sky she say rain.

Where wouldn't you like to see John after you insulted him?
In an Alley.

THE TCHOGEERRAH 1935

Was Gert-rude to open the car window?

No. The automo-Biel-e-feldt stuffy.

Why does Ted take so many liberties?

Because he is a free-man.

Why should Logan and Luebke be members of a kingly court?

Because one is a harold and the other an earl.

Is Kathleen a happy sort of person?

Oh my, yes! I've never heard her g-r-umble.

Our local fortune teller says that John ere long,

Shall be a mason swift and strong.

Where did Hu-go?

A-cross the street to the harness shop.

Why doesn't someone ask Jack why he always prefers to sit in a morris chair?

Why is Meske such a sweet babe?

Because she is a Ruth.

Why has Bob got such a big hed-in this-berg?

If Lil gets Bill

It'll be her th-erd-man.

What kind of coffee does Robert drink?

Why "Hoffman's," of course!

Can't she learn to swim?

Why must Gussie always have to fish-er out?

What does Charlotte's future mother-in-law say to that boy friend of hers?

Bring home that bacon, sonny.

Why does Jef-prefer-fords? Ask Mary!

Ores missed his calling—he should have been a lion tamer,

Because he's Danielson.

What kind of dance step is that?

Why it's the Charle-ston-e.

Who put the dent-on the fry-ing pan?

Has Bob got a temper?

Oh, sometimes he's Kam, but on some he uses rath.

BRIGHT SAYINGS OF MODEST SENIORS

Spring hastens the sap in the trees; but it slows up the sap in school.
An example of rigid economy is a dead Scotchman.
Seniors should remember that the sap always rises to the top.
The most efficient woman's club in existence is the broomstick.
Win or lose, we always win—Adapted.
A hug is a round-about way of expressing affection.
A shirt is every man's bosom friend.
A sculptor is an unfortunate who makes statues and busts.
She was really a farmer's daughter, but the elevator man brought her up.
It's the numbers with the good figures who count.
She was only a coal man's daughter; but oh, where she had bin.
The fellow who now sleeps in his classes may some day work for the government.
Early to bed and early to rise keeps my brother from wearing my ties.

A PROCLAMATION

Be it hereby known to the public that "me" and the rest of the "gals" do solemnly resolve: (1) Never to make school on time (2) Never to know what is going on in class (3) Never to keep "in" with the faculty (4) Never to be quiet in the study hall (5) Never to have a beau.

INTELLIGENCE TEST

This being an intelligence test, we admit from the start that we're crazy ever to print the stuff, but also hold that you are still crazier if you read it. Here are ten questions, the answers to which are at first puzzling, but which in reality are quite apparent even to the five-year-old intellect, or the average High School student. You should be able to answer all of these in less time than it takes the seniors to pass a note.

1. Should athletes be allowed to wear their "F" sweaters to formals? What then? Why not? Oh, they are too. Give reasons.

2. Why would it be the most expensive shave in history if the Smith Brothers, the famous cough droppers, removed their foliage? What color would the skin immediately under the under lip of Mark be? Why would Trade be the fatter? Quick now.

3. Who has the most trouble cutting classes? A keen or dull student? Or are there keen students? You'll get this if you are sharp.

4. If frogs have dark green feet and Chinamen braid their pigtails backward on Sundays, how many decades would it take a cross-eyed giraffe running on his hind legs and facing east, to outdistance a flat-footed woman with false teeth making tapioca pudding in a rain barrel? Oh you silly, silly.

5. This being the fifth question, is there any reason for your not being glad that you're half way through? So are we.

6. Dickens is the name of an orchestra leader, a movie actor, a circus rider's daughter, a continent in Europe, a foreign automobile, a week-end in Fort Atkinson. I'm dying to tell this one.

7. The Saturday Evening Post is the name of a telephone pole, a U. S. Mail Station, a breakfast food, a place to tie a horse, a lamp post. That's right.

8. A kaffir is a kind of coffee, a restaurant, a piece of string, a fortune teller, a cough, a Polish president. Aw, well, we can't get them all.

9. Mollusk is the name of a Russian poet, a city in Asia, an imported perfume, a kind of melon, the name of a girl. Oh, come now.

10. This being the last question, don't you think that this test has really increased your fund of knowledge; at least to the extent that you won't be hooked into reading another test like this? Give reasons with special references.

You will find your intelligence quotient on page 58 of the current telephone directory. Time limit is indefinite—you'd cheat anyway. Well, we can't blame you.

THINGS WE ARE PAID NOT TO TELL

Why Sod wishes he could live on East Sherman Avenue.

Where Earl Luebke got his suspenders.

Where Sugar Plum Kamrath spends his evenings.

Where Wilson Beebe found his smile.

Who curls Howard Weiss' hair at night.

Why Gordon Kemmeter waits for the mail man.

Why they call Bill Rose "Airdale".

How to get a hundred in a History test.

Why Loren Abbott had to learn to dance this year.

WEATHER REPORT

Nice day, if it don't rain. Probably showers. It MAY rain. Clouds last seen over Kansas headed this way. (Maybe it was over a teakettle—not sure.) If they reach here, as I said, it might rain. Father partly to cloudy about the time we get in. Fair and warmer for the Christmas season. Which reminds us—Do your Christmas schnapping early. You, too, Gertie.

Temperature for today:

A. M.
7:00 Warm—in bed
7:30 Still in bed
9:05 212° in room 9.
11:45 Cooler
P. M.
3:20 Torrid in room 15
6:20 Lost records in rush for dinner
10:30 The thermometer finds us sleeping

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Whitewater

Last week two young ladies who are most interested in Whitewater decided to try their thumbs to see if they were nimble enough to get them in the vicinity of the objects of their affections. After losing their nerve when a south-going car stopped, they said, "Going South?" Upon receiving an affirmative reply they very rudely and curtly asked that the driver bring them back some oranges. Well, girls, more power to you. We didn't want to go to Whitewater anyway. We heard some good stories about Whitewater. It's a shame we are cramped for space.

Our local news correspondent sends the following: On April 16 one of our fair younger set had a date with Whitewater. She was seized with nostalgia—early.

Whitewater is waiting for the forensic contest April 26. Be careful, Whitewater, those girls are expert talkers or they wouldn't be coming up. Don't say I haven't warned you.

Palmyra

Notice from the town of Palmyra: Officials have threatened to arrest trio reported to be wearing out the streets of said town.

Floyd Tamblingson, Robert Hedberg, and Loren Abbott motored to Palmyra again last Friday. Tsk. Tsk. Tsk. One for each of you.

Jefferson

Jefferson is always pleased to receive visits from young Mr. Hagemann.

Mr. Clayton Carlisle visited Jefferson again.

Gertrude Pitzner, Beverly Lude-man, Charlotte Bacon, etc., were pleasantly surprised by visits from Jefferson several times this year.

Edgerton

John Alley visited Edgerton.

Janesville

John Alley visited Janesville.

Busseyville

Jimmie Vosburg and Harold Logan visited near Busseyville often. Juanita Ebert, Busseyville, was a guest at dinner at the Vosburg residence.

Stoughton

Stoughton visited Frances Urban.

Frances Urban visited Stoughton.

Stoughton visited here again. My goodness!

Bud Anderson visited the Trie-loff residence.

Fred Marsch visited the Trie-loff residence. My goodness!

After three visits, Emmitt Crit-ton brings own girl.

Waukesha

Girls: We saw a cute boy from here.

Watertown

Butch Werner saw Georgia Richards. War clouds on horizon.

Charles Abbott, Esq., visited the Cushman home.

Mr. Hornickle visited the Haus-en residence at Fort Atkinson. Not much traffic, so road was easily crossed.

ROTOGRAVURE SECTION

Our artist risked his life to get these pictures.

The first picture shows Alice Brown hard at study in the middle of Easter vacation.

This picture shows a picture of a blackboard immediately after Bob Smith has worked a difficult Algebra problem.

IT'S THE CATS!

When Teddy Freeman was a little tyke he saw his cat carrying its kitten by the nape of the neck.

"You naughty cat!" he cried. "You ain't fit to be a mother. You ain't hardly fit to be a father!"

DO YOU GET THE POINT?

On this last April Fool's day, Carroll Barker was the unfortunate victim of a practical joke. He rose in haste in History class to find that he had been seated upon a stray tack.

"Well," said Miss Rice, "I suppose that you sat down on the spur of the moment."

INQUIRING REPORTER

This week he asks the question:
WHO MAKES THE HIGH SCHOOL?

Dear Burlap:

I make the High School. I am the faculty who deign to stimulate befuddled brains. Our efforts cause aches and pains. We make the High School.

Yours truly,
The Faculty.

Dear Gunny Sack:

I make the High School. Without me schools would be a laugh. My beef and brawn can stand the gaff. Gained eighty yards in the second half. I make the High School.

Yours truly,
The "F" Man.

Dear Teapot Domes:

I make the High School. I love my books, I study much. I have no time for girls and such. Plebeian things I scorn to touch. I make the High School.

Yours truly,
Studious Student.

Dear Burrie:

I make the High School. I am the school girl, shy, demure. I live to learn, I hope to tour. You want a date? Tonite? Why sure. I make the High School.

Yours shrewly,
The School Girl.

Burlap, you dear old Sock:

I make the High School. A sheepsin's mine. My course is done. Advice, donations—I'm the one. Homecoming's when I have my fun. I make the High School.

Yours truly,
The Alumni.

Dear Mr. Domes:

I make the High School. I use my money to pay for schools so the faculty can teach my kids rules. So they won't grow up into fools. I make (the dough that makes) the High School.

Yours truly,
The Male Parent.

THE NEWSANCE

EDITORIAL

In writing this section of the Annual, it has been very hard to pick the right articles to go with the right people. On the other hand, it has also been hard to pick only one article for a person. For example, we thought of, for the "Punny Name" column, several things to go with different people. Like, instead of the one which appears in the column about Marion Gardinier, there is this one—'Smatter, Marion? Gardinier ache. Or this one: Does Marion have a gardin-i-er? No. She works the Sod herself.

Our chief hope is that after reading this section, if you have been able to crack that physiognomy of yours into the semblance of a half-hearted grin . . . if you made your internal anatomy twist or turn as the result of a suppressed smile . . . if you have convinced yourself that you have seen funnier faces over this book than in it . . . if you have come upon an idea of where the faculty of 1986 will find their Annual class room jokes . . . then . . . dear reader, our work is complete; we have done something worth while, yes, we sure have . . . etc. . . etc. . . and so on, far, far into the eyes of posterity.

Please remember, DEAR Reader, that you are not to take any part of this section too seriously; remember, anything for a joke . . . or . . . may the quips fall where they may and may the quirks bring a grin or maybe two grins.

If your name does not appear in this section as often as you would wish, don't forget that the editor's life is a hard one; running from enraged victims all the time. Think of all the names in here, the owners of which are angry because we gave them the publicity, as if we could help the crazy things they did. But if you really want your name in this paper, we will put it in next week and after that you can hunt for us. We're seeing Mercury about his winged shoes.

WIT OR WITOUT

I heard a good one about a senior girl. The other day she went into a store and asked the saleslady if she might see something cheap in a hat. The saleslady pointed to a rack of hats and guilelessly said, "Here are some hats; there is a mirror . . . Wow! . . . If I were Lav Pifer I'd say 'Some people' . . . You know how Willy Kruckenberg sleeps in his classes; well, he's planning on working for the government . . . Some taste, I'd say. . . At one of those innumerable meetings that these committees have, Floyd Tamblinson was thinking up bright sayings about Mr. Ghandi. The best one that found itself going the rounds was—May I help you on with your coat, Mr. Ghandi? . . . We can appreciate the feelings of Miss Ingalls when on looking over James Hevey's theme she finally saw a comma and gasped, "Ah, the pause that refreshes!" . . . I just heard a radio announcer announce on his return from a short absence, "Yes, I haven't been feeling well, I was down by the river one day last week, and I got a creek in my neck." . . . Oh, well, water we care. . . . One day Gussy Fisher asked me if I had read "To a Field Mouse." I have always wondered how he got them to listen. I suppose though that there is a system to everything. . . . Someone in the crowd was bragging about a distinguished ancestry. "My father sprang from a long line of peers." Mary Mehltretter was in the crowd. She asked, innocently enough, "Did he drown?" . . . This column is getting "All wet" . . . Ho, hum . . . It's Sunday today. It seems that just as soon as we get adjusted to loafing, it's Monday. . . . There is always something to be pessimistic about. . . . Myrtle Kraus says that every time she goes out with her new boy friend, her heart beats so loudly that it sounds like a drum. But she's figured out that probably it is just a call to arms. . . . There is a girl in school who's never been kissed—so she swears. . . . That was pretty good until some wise guy says, "Gosh, who wouldn't" . . . Read it over—it really does make sense. . . . I wish I could mention the names in that last one . . . but maybe you know already. . . . This one is rather old, but I still like it. Someone says, "May I kiss your Palmolive?" And she says, "Not on your Lifebuoy. Ivory formed." . . . The other day it was necessary to call a person on the telephone and ask him if he owned a dog. "A what?" was the answer. . . . "Dog. Dog. D, as in doughnut; O, as in doughnut; and G, as in doughnut." . . . Someone asked me the other day what a female sheep was. . . . If you wondered what that scratch was doing over my eye, you will know the answer I gave . . . Ewe; for those who didn't notice the scratch. . . . Boys, hark to the sound advice of Confucius, or was it Solomon? Who cares? . . . Here it is anyway: Do right and fear no man. Don't write and fear no woman. . . . Last year several students were in Madison for a forensic contest. Georgie (Dugan) Hagemann said, "Where shall we eat?" Duane Koenig with his usual explicitness said, "Let's eat up the street." "No," said Betty Burlingham, "I don't like asphalt." . . . There was a time when Leon Denisuk thought that one cooled the motor of a car by stripping the gears. . . . Our former classmate. . . . about two years . . . knows that a patrol wagon isn't much of a car, but it'll do in a pinch. . . . Mr. Butcher tells this one on someone who came in the store. "I want a little pink tablet." "Well, you'll have to be more explicit than that. What is your trouble?" "I have to write a letter." . . . That goes for me, too. I mean, I have to write a letter . . . and it's about time, don't you think so?

HOW TO MAKE A HIT WITH THE TEACHERS

(By one who knows)

It isn't hard to make a hit with the teachers if you go about it right. The first thing to do is to be late every morning for a week. If the teacher says anything, answer her with the proverb, "Better late than never." You'll get an "Ex" on this because it shows that you have a good memory. Then be sure and scrape your heels noisily on the floor from the door to your seat, especially if you sit in the last seat. This will make the teachers realize your importance. Sit down noisily and at the same time drop your books and jostle the student ahead of you and begin to comb your hair. If the person in front moves and your vanity case falls, don't let that disturb your preparations.

When called on by the teacher to answer a question, tell her that you don't know that one, but can answer the next. This will get a rise out of her, and while she's in good humor, take out a stick of gum and begin to chew vigorously, cracking it at intervals. Bubble gum is recommended. Tiring of this, take the gum out of your mouth and park it on the bottom of the desk so that the next person who sits there may use it also. This shows you are thoughtful. If, by this time the teacher hasn't sent you out of the room, yell "Fire" at the top of your voice. Everyone will get excited. At the inquiry of the teacher as to the motive, tell her you only wanted a little excitement. You will undoubtedly get some.

The bell will ring and you may pass to your next class or study, but be sure and be late, for as I said, that signifies good manners.

AN UNUSUAL TALE OF DEVOTION

They quietly skimmed along the road. The night was chilly and very still. The motor chugged along in perfect rhythm. She watched him from the corner of her eye. Bob Kordatzky's strong and handsome profile shone in the gray darkness. His hands gripped the wheel with the greatest firmness. Time seemed everlasting to her. The long white ribbon of road lay miles before them. Presently she moved closer to him and laid her cold little nose against his neck. She loved him and he loved her. She was his terrier pup.

AUNT FANNY'S COLUMN

Dear Aunt Fanny:

I don't know what is the matter with me. No matter how hard I study, I am always at the bottom of the class. I work all the time, but don't seem to make any progress. Can you tell me what is wrong? I am five feet, two inches tall, and have blue eyes.

Yours in need,
Evelyn Haines.

Dear Evelyn:

I don't think you need to worry about your grades. Remember, no matter if you are at the bottom, they teach the same things at both ends. Perhaps you could find solace in dying your eyes brown. Blue eyes are so distracting.

Your loving helper,
Aunt Fanny.

Dear Aunt Fanny:

What shall I do? I go quite steady with a boy who goes quite steady with me. I don't want to go real steady; but I think he does. Oh, dear, life is such a muddle. What shall I do? I have blue eyes, too.

Distractedly,
Mildred Heritage.

Dear Mildred:

The thing to do is to steady yourself. In your case, too, it must be the blue eyes. They do muddle one. Just use your own good sense, dear, in a case like this one. I can tell by your letter that you are more intelligent than the average; so you can best decide for yourself.

Confidently,
Aunt Fanny.

He made a run around the end,
Was tackled from the rear.
The right guard sat upon his neck
The full back on his ear.
The center sat upon his legs
Four ends sat on his chest.
The quarter and the full back then
Sat down on him to rest.
The left guard sat upon his head,
A tackle on his face;
The coroner was next called in
To sit upon his case.
